GOLD AND SILVER FOREIGN COINS.

A KNOWLEDGE of the relative value of foreign coins is highly important to commercial men, and to the traveller. In the following table of the different coins used among the various nations with which England has intercourse, will be found their corresponding value in English money. The method of obtaining this result is founded upon the following principle. In a coin we consider the weight and standard. By standard is meant the proportion of pure gold or silver which it contains: the rest is alloy. Thus, if we suppose a coin to contain a thousand parts of metal, of which 917 are pure gold or silver, the 83 remaining parts being alloy, the 917 represent the standard, or relative purity of the coin.

The English sovereign weighs 7.9808 gram., the standard is at 917, the alloy consequently 0.662 gram., and the weight of pure gold contained in it 7.3184 gram.

Now, by the Rule of Three, the question will thus be resolved:
7.318 gram. : 11.988 gram. :: 20 shillings : = £1, 12*s.* 9*d.*

By this method, we can ascertain the relative value of all coins; but sometimes the value thus ascertained will not exactly agree with the sum allowed in exchange. This difference arises from political causes and commercial vicissitudes. Thus, for instance, the value at par of the sovereign in French money, is 25 fr. 26 c., yet it rose to 25 fr. 50 c. in the month of August last, after the change of the French ministry. This fall and rise, in the relative value of money, principally takes place whenever there is a paper currency.

1. France.

The money unit in France is the franc, which, according to the decimal system, is divided into one hundred parts, called centimes. In Government accounts and legal deeds, all sums must be expressed in francs and centimes; but among the people, and in the purchase of goods sold retail, and in small quantity, the denomination of sous is still in use. This practice does not create confusion, because the sou is a multiple of the centime,—that is, there are twenty sous to the franc, and each contains 5 cent. The two sous piece may also be called décime, or tenth of a franc.

Although the franc and the livre tournois now appear to be of equal value, there is, however, a slight difference in favour of the franc:—100 fr. = 101 livres 5 sous. Hence if an individual had to discharge a debt contracted previously to the year VIII. of the Republic, and stipulated in livres tournois, he would be entitled, in making his payment in francs, to a deduction in the proportion above mentioned. Formerly the livre tournois was the money unit of France. Its value has varied much, although it has retained the denomination which, orignally, was the expression of its nature. Under Charlemagne, in the ninth century, its weight was 12 ounces, or 1 lb. troy weight, and its value 78 liv. 17 sous of present money. The weight and value progressively decreased down to the time of Louis XV. when it only amounted to 8 sous. Under Louis XVI. it rose again to 20 sous.

Besides the new coinage issued during the Republic, under the Empire, and since the Restoration, the old one is still in circulation. There is, however, but little of it extant. The value of the silver pieces has not only been reduced in 1810, as will be seen here, but the pieces of 24, 12, and 6 sous are not to be taken in payment, except they have preserved some part of the stamp (empreinte); consequently, all those which were defaced have been withdrawn from circulation.

There is also in France a coin, composed of copper and silver, in the proportion of 4 to 1, called Billon, and denominated by the people "monnaie grise." Before the Revolution, there were of this mixture, pieces of six liards, (the French sou being divided into four liards,) and of two sous and a half, called pieces of six blancs: there are few of this value now extant, but there are pieces of two sous, or décimes.

1 Sergeant Major, 3 Constables, 30 Ward Officers, 4 House Officers, 6 Criminal Officers, 105 Watchmen.

REGULATIONS.

The Sergeant Major and two Constables, with ten Officers, attend at the Office, previous to the Watchmen being sent to their Stations. These Officers thereafter patrole the Streets, observe if the Watchmen are doing their duty, apprehend vagrants, suspicious and disorderly persons, and report lamps not burning, in order that they may be immediately lighted by a lamp-lighter, who remains in the Guard-House, during the night, for that purpose. After 12 o'clock, they commence taking up the tickets from the Watchmen, that they received when going to their Stations, which they deliver to the Constable on duty, at 2 o'clock; they again visit the Watchmen, and after 3 o'clock deliver them check-tickets, which they return to the Constable in the morning, on arriving from their Stations. The other twenty Officers that were in bed all night, attend in the morning, at 6 o'clock, from the 1st of March till the 1st of November, and at 7 o'clock, from the 1st of November till the 1st of March, to patrole the Streets, till 9 o'clock, inspecting their Wards, and observing that the Pavements are properly cleaned. A regular report of the whole is entered in a book, by the Constable of the night, for the inspection of the Master of Police, in the morning, and the Commissioners at the Weekly Board, as also a report of all delinquents brought before the Sitting Magistrate at 10 o'clock, forenoon.

A Constable, and twenty Officers, attend at the Office, every morning at 10 o'clock. Four of these Officers remain in charge of the Office, and the other sixteen are stationed in different districts of the city, and continue on their respective Stations, until relieved by the night Watchmen.

The Watchmen go to their Stations at 9 o'clock at night, during the whole year, and continue till 5 in the morning, in the months of May, June, July, and August; till 6, in the months of March, April, September, and October; and till 7, in the months of November, December, January, and February. The whole draw up in line in the centre of the street, opposite their respective stations, immediately before calling the hour and half-hour, in order to ascertain, at one glance, that every man is at his post.

The funds for defraying the expense are raised part from the town, and from the yearly rent of subjects, rented or valued at £4 and under £6, sterling yearly, 4d. per pound, sterling—At £6, and under, £10, 6d. per pound.—£10, and under £15, 9d. per pound.—£15, and upwards, 1s. per pound.

Parish Ministers and Schoolmasters, Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons, Faculty of Procurators, Widows and unmarried Ladies not in business, and who do not keep lodgers and paupers; and no inhabitant to have Soldiers billeted on them a second time till the whole are gone over.

Occupiers of houses at £3 and under £5 yearly rent, two men for any number of days under a week—at £5 and upwards, two men for two weeks, or the remainder of the month, which may happen to be seventeen days.

When it is inconvenient to furnish Soldiers with a bed, it has been usual in lieu thereof to pay 3s. a week for two men, and 2s. to sergeants, payable weekly at the option of the Inhabitant. Government allows a return of 9d. per week, and one penny for each odd night for each Soldier. The Billet master attends from 11 to 3 o'clock, on the 28th of each month, (when it does not fall on Sunday,) and the two following days, to pay the Government allowance.

The case of a sergeant, who charged 8s. for a billet of two weeks upon an inhabitant, was brought before the sitting Magistrate, who, after hearing both parties, and examining witnesses, ordered the soldier to refund the overcharge, and communicate this circumstance to his comrades; and decerned that 1s. 6d. per week is a sufficient sum in lieu of a bed; but, as the soldier is put to some trouble to provide a bed for himself, he should be allowed 6d. additional, making a sum of 2s. per week; and if at any future time a higher charge is made, it shall not be allowed to pass unnoticed.—Glasgow Herald, 23d Dec. 1822.

A case similar to the above, was tried in the Justice of Peace court, when a sergeant made a charge of 3s. per week, for one man, for a bed, which the inhabitant resisted as being too much; the Justices adhering to a decision of the Magistrates in December, 1822, decided, that 2s. per week, was the proper sum to be paid to one man in lieu of a bed.—Glasgow Chronicle, 17th June, 1824.

This Table is calculated for the Broomielaw, on the supposition that the tides are influenced only by the action of the sun and moon. It will, therefore, be necessary when using it, to remember that in rivers, like the Clyde, the regularity of the tides is much interrupted by heavy rains, as well as by high winds, the former producing what are called floods or freshes, the latter altering both the height of the tide and the time of high water.

Heavy rains affect the hour of full tide in a very inconsiderable degree; but a strong gale from the North-West, North, or North-East, not only prevents the tide from rising so high as usual, but causes high water to happen sometimes above half an hour earlier, than what is stated in the table; while, on the other hand, if the gale be from the South-East, South, or South-West, the tide will be as much later, and probably from twelve to eighteen inches higher than the average.

The Table may be used for the following places, if, to the time of High Water at Glasgow, the hours and minutes, opposite to the given place, be added or subtracted as directed.

Abstract of Act for extending the Jurisdiction of the Magistrates of Glasgow over the Lands of Blythswood, &c.

THIS act extends the jurisdiction of the Magistrates and of the Burgh and Dean of Guild Courts of Glasgow over the following lands, viz. :—In the first place, those lands bounded on the south by the south side of Argyll Street, Anderston Walk, and the road leading from Glasgow to Dumbarton, until the latter joins the Clairmont road; on the east by the present royalty, or east side of St. Enoch's burn; on the north, partly by the centre of Sauchiehall Street or Road, and partly by the north side of Sandyford Road, immediately to the west thereof; and on the west by the west side of the said Clairmont Road; excepting always those parts of the said Lands comprehended within the burgh of Anderston: In the second place, those lands bounded on the south by the centre of Sauchiehall Street or Road; on the east and north east partly by the centre of St. Enoch's Burn, and partly by the east and north east side of the road leading from Glasgow to Garscube; on the north by the landward part of St. George's parish, as marked out by royalty stones, one hundred and fifty-two to one hundred and fifty-nine inclusive; and on the west, partly by the west side of Rosehall Street, and partly by the west side of the road leading from Sauchiehall Street or Road to Woodside: In the third place, those lands, parts of Easter and Wester Craigs, belonging in property and superiority to the Merchants' house of Glasgow, and bounded on the north by the properties of Messrs. Buchanan and Orr and James Dennistoun, Esquire; on the east by the road from Glasgow to Golfhill; on the south by the lands of John and Robert Tennant, Esquires, and their successors; and on the west by the present royalty.

The Magistrates, and Burgh and Dean of Guild Courts shall, with the exceptions and under the conditions aftermentioned enjoy the same authority over these grounds, as they do over the present royalty.

It shall not be competent to the Procurator Fiscal, or Dean of Guild Court, unless applied to by some interested person, to interfere in the lining of any house; and no party shall be compelled to apply to said Court for any other object. The Master of Police, or any three householders, or the Fiscal of the Dean of Guild Court, may enforce fulfilment of the obligations as to causewaying and common sewers in the feu contracts or other deeds of the Blythswood Feuars, which it is by a subsequent clause enacted, they shall be bound to fulfil; providing also that where no such obligation is in title deeds the Feuars or Proprietors shall be bound each equally, but rateably and proportionally to causeway and repair and maintain, in a sufficient manner, with whin stones, or otherwise, as may be directed by the Courts aftermentioned, or either of them, the streets in front of their ground, houses, &c. or the half thereof, where there are houses on both sides, as soon as any street, or division, or part thereof, measuring 100 yards in length, shall be built or completed, with houses or other buildings, to the extent of two-thirds of the length thereof; as also to construct common sewers; reserving to them all claims competent against the Statute Labour Trust of the Barony Parish for the whole, or a proportionable part of the expense of said causewaying.

It shall be competent to the Superintendent of Police, three Householders, or Procurator Fiscal, of either the Dean of Guild or Sheriff Court, to enforce fulfilment of the obligations as to causeways and common sewers contained in title deeds or imposed by this Act, by actions to be raised before either of said Courts, which are empowered to decern accordingly, awarding expenses to parties appearing entitled thereto, with an alternative judgment, in the event of failure to causeway, &c. within a certain period, authorising the execution of the necessary operations at the expense of the Feuars, and declaring the expenses of suit, real burdens, (postponed to the Superior Feu duties) over the subjects in question until paid, with interest, from the period of disbursement.

The Sheriff and Justices of the county to exercise the same powers as formerly.

Lands shall continue to be holden as before, without any change whatever of their tenure.

The lands remain liable for the proportion of the cess or land tax imposed on the county of Lanark; and shall not be liable for any cess or trades' stent levied by authority of the Magistrates of Glasgow.

These lands, as part of the Barony parish, continue liable for the statute labour, and the conversion thereof.

The tithes payable out of said lands are reserved to the true owners thereof.

The lands shall remain quoad sacra part of the Barony parish; and the rights and the emoluments of the Minister, Kirk Session, Schoolmasters, and Session Clerks of said parish remain entire; and the collections shall continue to be applied to the relief of the poor of said parish.

As to supporting the poor of the Barony, these lands shall remain a portion of said parish; and no person residing on said lands can be nominated as assessor for the poors' rates, of the ancient and extended royalty, who is not a burgess of said city, and does not contribute to said assessment.

In respect of all public or parish burdens not enumerated, which now affect, or which may hereafter affect the Barony parish, said lands shall remain a part of said parish, and shall continue to be liable for a proportion of Easter and Wester Craigs, of said burdens in the same manner as at present.

The lands of Blythswood and adjacent lands are to be divided into nine wards, enumerated the 27th, &c. each having two resident commissioners, and one general commissioner. The lands last above described are comprehended in and annexed to ward 22d of the royalty. No general commissioner shall be elected for any ward unless it contains 50 persons paying assessment, or until assessment be levied on such ward.

The provisions of the present Police act, 1st and 2d Geo. IV. made applicable to the said lands in certain cases.

The occupiers of these lands to pay additionally £1000 for a Watch-house, and a Shed for Fire Engines.

This act to continue in force during the subsistence of the present Police Act, which expires in 1835.

THE HONOURABLE WILLIAM FRASER, Chairman,

And Ten Directors.

The Lowest Rates Ever Published,

WHETHER FOR A TERM OR FOR THE WHOLE OF LIFE.

The following are selected from the Even rates.

Age.	Whole Life.	7 Years.
20	1 11 9	0 17 1
30	2 2 0	1 2 10
40	2 17 1	1 10 8
50	4 2 0	2 1 7

ALTERNATIVE.

One-third of the Premium may be left unpaid, to be deducted from the sum assured, on a scale equal to interest at 4 per cent.

Thus, at the age of 30, 20 Guineas a year, will insure £1500 in the first instance, to be reduced by £10, 18s. 5d. if the Assured die within the first year; by £59, 2s. 11d. if he die within the fifth year; and so on, according to a scale endorsed on the Policy.

Ascending Scale of Premiums.

Age.	First 7 Years.	Next 7 Years.	Every Year after.
20	1 1 4	1 6 2	2 4 7
30	1 8 7	1 15 1	3 0 11
40	1 18 3	2 7 0	4 9 8
50	2 11 11	4 0 11	7 0 3

A man at 30, instead of £2, 2s. for every year of life, according to the Even Table, by adopting the Ascending Scale—will pay £1, 8s. 7d. per annum for the first seven years, £1, 15s. 1d. per annum for a further 7 years, and £3, 0s. 11d. for every year of life after.

This scale ought to supersede all others in cases of Annuity, or Leases for lives, in which very low rates for so long a period as 14 years, will be found highly advantageous.

INSURANCES ON THE LIVES OF OTHERS.

Parties having a fixed or variable interest in the lives of others, may have a general admission of interest on the Policy.

Contingent interests,—as a father insuring a child during minority, or a husband his wife, will be admitted, the insurance being confined to the particular interest detailed in the proposal.

VOYAGES AND FOREIGN RESIDENCES.

Persons voyaging or residing abroad, Masters, Supercargoes, and others, insured for the whole of life or for a specific voyage.

NAVAL AND MILITARY SERVICE.

Officers insured against all risks, for an even premium, or enrolled for a future period, on payment of an annual fee.

PREGNANCY, DELICATE HEALTH, AND OLD AGE.

Females need not appear; the rates for diseases are moderate, and Policies are granted to persons of advanced age.

Insurances may be effected without delay, and full particulars obtained from
